CSA Management Committee Members

Thank you for considering becoming a CSA management committee member.

The CSA management committee can have up to 20 members (including 4 office bearers). A person can only be a committee member if he or she is a current member of the CSA (membership for the CSA is from January to December each year). This includes nominees whose membership is through a corporate membership.

A management committee member's term is for one year, from the AGM in which the member is elected to the following AGM each year (the AGM is usually in March). If you wish to remain on the committee, you will need to re-nominate.

In order that you understand the workload of a Committee member, it is expected when joining the management committee of the CSA that you will be able to:

- Attend CSA management committee meetings (not less than four, and typically around six, per year, with additional ad hoc meetings from time to time). In addition, the CSA does much of its work through sub-committees, and you will be expected to contribute to the work of at least one of those sub-committees during the year.
- Contribute to the organisation of CSA functions – Example, provide ideas for seminar topics, source speakers, chair the seminar or hosting the seminar at your organisation.
- Contribute to the organisation of the biennial copyright symposium – For example, providing ideas for symposium sessions, sourcing speakers and chairing a session.
- Contribute to the strategic planning and organisation of the CSA.

- Contribute to the Copyright Reporter.

In addition, in 2022 the position of Treasurer and Secretary are vacant and needs to be filled.

Please also refer to the CSA constitution for more information on the role of a CSA Committee Member. The constitution can be found on our website at <http://www.copyright.asn.au/more-about-us>. The CSA is incorporated in the ACT, and you can familiarise yourself with your legal obligations as a Committee member here: www.accesscanberra.act.gov.au.

If you have any questions regarding joining the CSA committee or would like to speak to a current committee member about the commitment, please contact the CSA via info@copyright.asn.au.
